

Rio de Janeiro

São Paulo

In days of old, in the southernmost state of Brazil, Rio Grande do Sul, cattle grazed the pampas (treeless plains), providing the Gaucho (Southern Brazilian Cowboy) with endless supplies of meat for the now famous tradition of "Churrasco" barbecues. The Gaucho would skewer large pieces of meat and slowly grill them over open-flamed pits.

In keeping with this tradition, we bring you CHURRASCARIA SAUDADES.

At Churrascaria Saudades, we proudly keep this churrasco tradition alive. Our Gaucho chefs prepare, season, and skewer each tender cut of meat before slow roasting them to perfection. A fantastic gourmet salad bar with fresh cut vegetables, a variety of traditional side dishes to compliment the meats, signature cocktails, imported soft drinks and decadant desserts to round off the unique experience.

A Unique Steak Experience

*"There is no past that we can bring back by longing for it, only the present that builds and creates itself as the past withdraws."
-Goethe*

The word SAUDADE (pronounced: sow' DA jee or plural: sow' DA jeez) is the Brazilian word that has no direct translation into English but is most accurately described as a deep emotional state of nostalgic longing for an absent something or someone. After a unique steak experience, as can only be experienced at Churrascaria Saudades, a guest will go away with the desire to return, hence the name SAUDADES.
